

A Hard Night's Day

By Anne Elder

Illustrated by Miranda Bissinger and Stephanie A. Boyd

*After a hard night, Mama Mouse walks
around her farm
searching for Peace of Mind. With the help of many friends and acquaintances, she finally succeeds.*

“Whether read in a classroom or on a loving lap at home, A Hard Night's Day will surely capture the hearts of children and adults alike. The loving support of family and neighbors, the rejuvenating power of nature, and the sometimes exhausting reality of parenthood are a few of the themes in this gem of a book.”

~Judy Sauer
Elementary School Teacher

“On those days when my children are having a difficult or lonesome day, I like to pull this book off the shelf to remind them that sharing their troubles with family and friends can help them feel whole again.”

~ Antoinette Prawdzik
Mother of 3

*All proceeds from this book benefit the Community Farm of Ann Arbor.
This book was locally written,
published, and printed.*

